

typing with Pee Pants is a little tricky. Since the ends are open if not connected to another letter, I added some tricky end elements to this font. Here's how a sentence looks. letters all connected.

The fat dog pees on the brown box.

Space bar, period, comma and some other punctuation has ends built into it so if you have a page break or use a capital letter (that only connects after itself) you will need ends.

space bar: (since space bar has ends, use ` for empty spaces. pages wont break using ` as space. )
